

SPRING CAME ON LAUGHIN

EGYPT

90 MINS

SYNOPSIS: Spring's cruel nature unveils secrets, anger, and sorrows, hidden beneath laughter in four tales. A poignant autumn finale concludes the film.

Noha Adel

Director

Noha Adel, born in 1975, is a talented director from Cairo University's English Department. She participated in the Fundamentals of Directing workshop in 2017 to enhance her skills. Noha wrote, directed, and produced the short film "Into Reverse" for her graduation project, which screened at the 2017 Dubai International Film Festival. Her second short film, "Once Upon A Time In the Café," was released in 2020 and received acclaim, participating in competitions at international and local film festivals and winning multiple awards. Noha is now focused on her debut feature film, "Spring Came on Laughing," set to release in 2024.

Kawthar Younis

Producer

Kawthar Younis is an experienced filmmaker based in Cairo. Her latest short film, "Sahbety / My Girl Friend" (2022), premiered at the Venice International Film Festival, becoming the first Egyptian short film to compete there. It has since been on tour, earning numerous awards. Kawthar also gained recognition for her film "A Present from the Past," which set a record for audience demand in Egypt. She is a co-founder of Rawiyat-Sisters in Film, a collective supporting female filmmakers. As a producer and film director, she works on feature films, short films, and mini-series.

Contact info: kawtharyounis@gmail.com

Laura Nikolov

Co-Producer

Laura Nikolov, who studied history and cinema in Paris, is involved in many activities for cultural and artistic diversity. After having managed different film activities as director of an Alliance française and consultant for film festivals, she is currently dedicated to film production working on several film projects around the world.

Contact info: laura.nikolov@coorigines.fr